

Webinar on Intra-EU Investment Protection

List of Possible Speakers

TOPICS

1. Introduction to Intra-EU investment protection
2. Justified and Unjustified Restriction to Investments under EU Law
3. Freedoms and Principles Protecting Intra-EU investments
4. Expropriation of Property and Protection of Property under EU Charter of Fundamental Rights and the European Convention of Human Rights
5. Procedural rights and effective judicial remedies under EU law
6. Remedies for the breach of investors' rights under EU law
7. Guided discussion: preliminary ruling procedure and enforcement

SPEAKERS

Name	Session number	Affiliation	Nationality	Comment
Agata Daszko	1, 4, 6	University of Göttingen	Polish	Research Fellow
Szilárd Gáspár-Szilágyi	1, 2, 3, 4, 5, 6	University of Birmingham	Romanian	Assistant Professor in EU and International Economic Law, with an interest in international investment law, EU investment law, EU external relations, and regional economic integration.
Markus Gehring	2, 3, 5, 6	Cambridge, visiting Professor at Yale	German	Professor. An international jurist in European and international trade law
Holger Hestermeyer	3, 5, 6	Kings College London	German	Professor of International and EU law, served as a Specialist Adviser to the EU External Affairs Sub-Committee and was a Référéndaire at the CJEU.
Steffen Hindelang	3, 5, 6	Uppsala University, Sweden	German	Professor. Teaches and researches in the areas of international economic law, esp. international investment law, EU law and German public law
Roland Klages	7	CJEU, legal secretary of Advocat General Maciej Szpunar	German	has published and regularly lectures on various aspects of EU law (currently at ENA and Sciences Po Strasbourg), with an emphasis on institutional matters, legal remedies and the internal market.

Mark Konstandinis	3, 4, 5, 6	Kings College London and University College London	Greek	PhD Candidate and lecturer in both EU law and international investment law.
Nicolaj Kuplewatzky	5, 6	CJEU, Commission, University of Cologne	?	Publishes and speaks widely on questions of investment law in the EU, high understanding of EU law in practice
Magdalena Lickova	7	CJEU, legal secretary of Advocate General Nicholas Emiliou	Czech	Previously she gained experience at an international law firm and she was a postdoctoral researcher at the University of Luxembourg. She completed her PhD examining the interplay between the EU and the Member States' external relations at the Université Paris I-Sorbonne.
Lorenza Mola	3, 4, 5, 6	University of Turin	Italian	Associate Professor of International Law, lecturer in EU Law, coordinator of the public international economic law issues taught at the Master of Laws in International Trade Law.
Dominik Moskván	2, 3, 4, 5, 6	University of Antwerp	Czech	Author of "Protection of Foreign Investments in an Intra-EU Context: Not One BIT?"
Stanislava Nedeva	2, 3, 4, 5, 6	University of Reading	Bulgarian	Lecturer in law on both EU law and international investment and arbitration.
Mavluda Sattorova	2, 6	University of Liverpool	Unsure	Professor. Teaches both international investment protection and EU law. Perhaps more on the IEL side.
Magdalena Słok-Wódkowska	3, 4, 5, 6	University of Warsaw	Polish	Assistant professor, chair of European Law, publishes widely on questions of international economic law
Harm Schepel	2, 3, 4	Brussels School of International Studies of the University of Kent	Dutch	Professor. Expert in European economic law (including European internal market, comparative and European competition law)
Pál Sonnevend	1, 2, 3, 4, 5, 6	Eötvös Lóránt University ELTE, Budapest	Hungarian	Professor. Expert of EU law and constitutional law, as well as international arbitration
Peter-Tobias Stoll	1, 2, 3, 4, 5, 6	University of Goettingen	German	Professor for Public and Public International Law (International Economic Law)

The training material was created under the service contract between the European Commission Directorate-General for Financial Stability, Financial Services and Capital Markets Union and the Academy of European Law (contract number FISMA/2022/LVP/0010) and financed by the European Union. The content of this training material cannot be taken as an official opinion of the European Commission.